

News release

June 9, 2016

Husky and MHT Settle Long-Standing Dispute

BOLTON, Ontario / HOCHHEIM, Germany – After many months of ongoing discussions, Husky Injection Molding Systems and MHT Mold & Hotrunner Technology today announced that they have come to a joint agreement to settle all pending disputes regarding issues concerning trade secrets. After many years of litigation, Husky and MHT have decided to amicably resolve any differences relating to this dispute. The terms of the settlement are confidential and both Husky and MHT look forward to closing this chapter to continue focusing on their respective businesses.

About Husky

Husky Injection Molding Systems Ltd. is a leading global supplier of injection molding equipment and services to the plastics industry. The company has more than 40 service and sales offices, supporting customers in over 100 countries. Husky's manufacturing facilities are located in Canada, the United States, Luxembourg, Austria, Switzerland, China, India and the Czech Republic.

About MHT

MHT Mold & Hotrunner Technology AG develops and produces tools and molds for plastic injection molding and hot runner technology. MHT specializes in producing high-precision and efficient molds for PET preforms. MHT is located in Germany, Luxemburg, the USA and China. MHT has supplied customers from all over the world since 1996. For more information, visit www.mht-ag.com.

For more information:

Media Relations

Husky Injection Molding Systems

media@husky.ca

MHT Mold & Hotrunner Technology

Ms. Anne Mävers, General Counsel

amaevers@mht-ag.de